Free time (86CCA2)

You are going to give a talk about your free time. You will have to start in 1.5 minutes and speak for not more than 2 minutes (10-12 sentences).

Remember to say:

- whether you have a lot of free time, and why, or why not;
- what you enjoy doing in your free time;
- what your Sunday afternoons are like;
- what your attitude to planning your free time is.

You have to talk continuously.

Possible answer:

I'm going to give a talk about my free time.

To begin with, I would like to say that I don't have a lot of free time because I'm really busy with my studies and homework. However, I have some free time at the weekend, so I can do my hobbies and recharge my batteries.

When I have free time, I enjoy watching videos, listening to music and hanging out with my friends. Sometimes I read books or play computer games. These activities help me relax.

Actually, Sunday afternoons are my favourite time. I often spend time with my family. We go to the park or to the cinema and we always have lunch in a cafe.

As for planning my free time, I think it is useful. It helps me use my time better.

That's all I wanted to say about my free time.

Reading books (262B27)

You are going to give a talk about reading books. You will have to start in 1.5 minutes and speak for not more than 2 minutes (10-12 sentences). Remember to say:

- whether reading is popular with teenagers, and why, or why not;
- what kind of books you like reading;
- why many people prefer e-books to paper books;
- what your attitude to reading is.

You have to talk continuously.

Possible answer:

I'm going to give a talk about reading books.

To begin with, I would like to say that reading is not very popular with teenagers today. Many young people prefer watching videos or surfing the Internet because it is more entertaining. However, some teenagers still enjoy reading because it helps them relax and learn new things.

As for me, I like reading detective stories and fantasy books because they are exciting and full of mystery. I enjoy stories with strong characters and unusual plots.

Nowadays, many people prefer e-books to paper books because they are more convenient. You can read them anywhere and store many books on one device. Besides, e-books are often cheaper than printed books.

All in all, my attitude to reading is very positive. I think reading broadens our horizons, recharges our batteries and boosts our imagination.

That's all I wanted to say about reading books.

The Internet (I5B835)

You are going to give a talk about the Internet. You will have to start in 1.5 minutes and speak for not more than 2 minutes (10-12 sentences).

Remember to say:

- why today's teenagers use the Internet so much;
- how the Internet makes long-distance communication easier;
- what dangers teenagers can face when they use the Internet;
- what your attitude to the Internet is.

You have to talk continuously.

Possible answer:

I'm going to give a talk about the Internet.

To begin with, I would like to say that today's teenagers use the Internet a lot because it is an important part of modern life. They use it for studying, communication and entertainment. For example, they watch videos, play games and use social networks.

In my opinion, the Internet makes long-distance communication much easier. People can send messages, make video calls and stay in touch with friends and relatives who live far away.

However, there are some dangers on the Internet. Teenagers can face problems such as cyberbullying, fake information and online scams. Also, spending too much time online can be addictive and bad for their health.

All in all, my attitude to the Internet is very positive. I think the Internet is very useful if we use it wisely. It helps us broaden our horizons and communicate with others.

That's all I wanted to say about the Internet.

TV (D47EE4)

You are going to give a talk about TV. You will have to start in 1.5 minutes and speak for not more than 2 minutes (10-12 sentences).

Remember to say:

- why people spend time watching TV;
- what most teenagers prefer: watching TV or browsing the Internet, and why;
- whether there is a TV programme you really like;
- what your attitude to watching TV as a way to spend your free time is.

You have to talk continuously.

Possible answer:

I'm going to give a talk about TV.

To begin with, I would like to say that many people spend time watching TV because it helps them relax and have fun. Besides, TV programmes can also be informative, so people can learn new things.

In my opinion, most teenagers prefer browsing the Internet to watching TV. This is because the Internet is more interactive and gives more opportunities. Teenagers can watch videos, play games and communicate with their friends online.

Personally, I don't watch TV a lot. However, there is a TV programme that I really like. It's called "What? Where? When". I enjoy watching this programme because it broadens my horizons and gives me food for thought.

All in all, my attitude to watching TV is neutral. However, I don't think it is the best way to spend my free time. I prefer spending time with my friends and doing sports.

That's all I wanted to say about TV.

- what kinds of films modern teenagers enjoy;
- where you prefer watching films: on TV, on the Internet or in the cinema, and why;
- what film you have seen recently, what it was about;
- what your attitude to watching films as a way to spend your free time is.

You have to talk continuously.

Possible answer:

I'm going to give a talk about films.

To begin with, I would like to say that modern teenagers enjoy different kinds of films such as comedies, action films and fantasy.

These genres are popular because they are exciting and entertaining.

Personally, I prefer watching films on the Internet because it is very convenient. I can choose any film I like and watch it anytime.

I have seen an animated film called "Zootopia" recently. It is about a rabbit and a fox who solve a difficult case together. I really liked this film because it is funny and has an important message.

All in all, my attitude to watching films is very positive. I think films are a great way to spend free time. They help us relax and learn something new.

That's all I wanted to say about films.
