

Mikhail Glinka

Mikhail Glinka is considered the founder of Russian classical music. He created a unique Russian musical style based on Russian traditions and folklore. Glinka was one of the first composers to use Russian literary works and folk melodies in his operas. His famous operas include Ruslan and Lyudmila and Ivan Susanin (A Life for the Tsar). Glinka had a great influence on later Russian composers, including Pyotr Tchaikovsky.

mtoybar

Pyotr Tchaikovsky

Pyotr Tchaikovsky was a famous Russian composer whose music is known all over the world.

He wrote many classical masterpieces known for their emotional depth and unforgettable melodies.

His ballets are still performed in theatres worldwide.

His best-known works are Swan Lake, The Nutcracker and The Sleeping Beauty.

mtoybar

Nikolay Rimsky-Korsakov

Nikolay Rimsky-Korsakov was a famous Russian composer and a member of “The Five”, a group of composers who promoted Russian national music. Many of his works were inspired by Russian folklore, fairy tales and culture. He composed numerous symphonic works and operas, including The Snow Maiden, Sadko and The Tale of Tsar Saltan (with its world-famous orchestral interlude, The Flight of the Bumblebee).

mtoybar

Sergey Prokofiev

Sergey Prokofiev was one of the most important Russian composers whose music had a strong impact on world classical music. He developed an original musical style that combined strong emotions, dramatic energy and innovative melodies.

One of his most famous works, Romeo and Juliet, became one of the most popular ballets of the 20th century, while Peter and the Wolf introduced children to orchestral instruments.

mtoybar

Dmitri Shostakovich

Dmitri Shostakovich was a famous Russian composer and pianist whose music had a great influence on classical music worldwide. Shostakovich was nominated for an Oscar for his adaptation of Modest Mussorgsky's music for the film version of the opera Khovanshchina and also received a Grammy nomination for his musical compositions. One of his most famous works is Symphony No. 7 ("Leningrad"), dedicated to the people of Leningrad during World War II.

mtoybar